 - Clubs must submit 2 weeks in advance.
4. Judges Course
 - Booked for March 4th, 2017 at the DNR Classroom in Shubanacide, NS.
 - Ryan to be post on website / Paul R to post on Facebook.
5. Coaching Courses
 - Duncan Crawford can facilitate coaching course on April 8TH- 9TH, place to be determined. Osprey to potentially host.
 - Level 3 can be offered. Bruce Graves, Bob Fougere, and Gail as potential candidates.
6. Newsletter and Shoot Cards
 - Pricing for shoot cards provided by Sport Nova Scotia. 250 per business provided.

- Young Guns would like to be involved.
- Paul to approach other businesses.
- Secretary traditionally to create newsletter. Ryan to follow up with Melanie to inquire about progress. Paul R offers assistance.

7. PEI Athlete Clinic

- Duncan Crawford is hosting an athlete clinic on March 11th and 12th in PEI. Bruce Savage is attending. 6 spots each for NB, PEI, and NS. Austin Ellis confirmed is going. Clinic is self-funded. AANS to provide $250 per athlete attending. Nicole first. Bruce seconded.

8. Misc. Shoot – guest insurance clarification, results.

- Email to go out to clubs outlining guest insurance guidelines.
- Issue surrounding guest members being awarded AANS medals. AANS recommends to clubs that any non-members are recorded in different class, and not awarded a medal. Ultimately, up the club.
- Results need to be submitted. Ryan to send an email to clubs to submit scores. Results could encourage participation.
- Jason suggests a point system throughout the shoot season. To be considered.

9. Rebranding update

- Ryan reached out to Di Vinci College with no reply to follow up email
- Paul R. knows a professional graphic designer, Jay Rawding, willing to redo the logo in exchange for her AANS membership. Paul S first. Sherri seconded.
- Website update necessary. Create a new page for vendors. Jason suggests we should link to NASP in effort to direct NASP participants to local shops.
- Paul to send out questionnaire regarding logo. Board to provide feedback.

10. New Business arising

Relocation of March 5th Regional Shoot

- Need for a club to host Regionals on either March 4th or 5th, 2017.
- Osprey unable to secure the Rec Centre- possibility to host in clubhouse. If Osprey hosted it would be on the Saturday, March 4th.
- Bruce to ask Chad Harpell about hosting Regionals in Truro.
- Possibility for Marilyn to judge while Ken is hosting

NSAF AGM

- Traditionally AANS has provided a delegate to this meeting.
- AANS approves Wayne Sullivan as delegate and to cover all costs. Jason first. Paul S seconded.

- Travis McLeod reached out and requested a report to be submitted. Ryan to draft a copy and consult with Paul R.

Canbow

- Bruce suggests AANS reviews Canbow program.
- Potential for Canbow to fit into NASP program.
- Jason notes Archery Canada underutilizes the program and will bring it to the attention of the AC Board.
- Bruce to provide proposal for next meeting.

Membership

- Jason asked about 2017 membership for clubs. Unsure of rate compared to last year but seems slow. Clubs italicized on website were members in 2016 but have yet to pay 2017 fees.
- Limited issues surrounding insurance and membership.

Recognition Pins

- Pins available for recognition. Bronze provided by clubs. Silver provided by AANS. Jason suggests silver to be presented to graphic designer.

Book of Remembrance

- Archery Canada provides an opportunity to provide names to put in book of remembrance. $125.00 donation to the foundation. AANS to donate in memory of Bruce Scott. Bruce to first. Paul S seconded. Bruce and Paul S to do write up.

BANS

- BANS AGM went well. President, John Landry, will put out call to clubs to BANS Bang up.

Meeting adjourned: 8:25. Paul S first. Sherri seconded.
